

Karin Park, Restless

Until I bleed, until I fall
Until my thoughts have lost their codes
Until my eyes have lost their spark
Until my love have lost its heart

Fall to feel the floor
Call me --- I'm coming back for more, oh oh oh
Like a pirouette has a way to go
But doesn't know it yet

I am restless for you, I am restless for you

Until the sadness covers me whole
Until the plague has taken us all
Until the torture makes me confess
Oh until my head is resting on your chest

It's about to fall, --- lose all the gaze of cannibals
Is it just a game, unless you take the bullet
Blow the bullet chain

I am restless for you, I am restless for you

So bring me light (so bring me light)
In the kaleidoscope (in the kaleidoscope)
On all these mirrors (on all these mirrors)
And with the end of the rope (and with the end of the rope)

Take the money spent, blood, shock
Wound, attack and defend, oh
It's a dog's fight, tick tock trig trig the dynamite

I am restless for you, I am restless for you
I am restless for you, I am restless for you
