

Karyn White, ID Rather Be Alone

Mmm...mmm...

I dont wanna be a fool, I dont wanna be a fool for love

No, no, I wont, no

Hey, no, ooh...

I know that people do go through changes, yeah

But this just dont make no damn sense

If were gonna keep sayin we love one another, yeah, yeah

Well, then we better stop fightin and arguin

Cause baby, Ive heard Im sorry too many, many times before

Now I know better

It hurts to hold on to this kind of love even more

No, Im not crazy

I wont be a fool, a fool for love

Cause I know Id rather be alone than be here unhappy

Im not gonna choose, choose for you

Cause I know Id rather be alone than be here unhappy

I know its time to go when I feel lonely

When Im layin in your arms and it dont feel right, oh

Cause every time I feelin up you try to bring me down

So I feel good knowin I dont need you around

Cause I know, I know that I can feel this bad all by myself, hoo, yeah

And maybe thats my best bet

Startin this time Im gonna think selfishly

And never depend on someone else for keepin me happy, oh, no, no

I wont be a fool, a fool for love

Cause I know Id rather be alone than be here unhappy, oh, no

Im not gonna choose, choose for you

Cause I know Id rather be alone than be here unhappy, oh...

I-I-I-I wont be a fool, a fool for love

Cause I know Id rather be alone than be here unhappy

Im not gonna choose, choose for you

Cause I know Id rather be alone than be here unhappy, ooh, yeah

Im never gonna be a fool for love

Id rather be alone, just give it up

Dont make no sense to be in love

And be here unhappy, oh, no

It might feel good on a lonely night

But layin in your arms today aint right

Id rather lose you than lose my mind
