

Kasabian, Sun Rise Light Flies

Sun rise light flies
Sun rise light flies
Sun rise light flies
Sun rise light flies
Sweet Sunday morning
Lets the nightmares come alive
I bet tomorrow makes it alright
I see my lovers
Flash before me on their knees
She tip the velvet makes it alright
Sun rise light flies
Sun rise light flies
Sun rise light flies
Sun rise light flies
Sweet Sunday morning
Shake the lizards from my back
I chase the devil just for one night
And I light the paper
For all the friends who passed away
To all existence show me your light
Sun rise light flies
Sun rise light flies
Sun rise light flies
Sun rise light flies
