Kaskade, We Don't Stop

We hold who we are We carry the weight of the storm And we hope to be whole Buried where memories are born

We don't stop, We don't stop for no one! We won't break, the world won't wait for you!

We don't stop, We don't stop for no one! We won't break, the world won't wait for you!

We hold who we are We carry the weight of the storm We were born to be Gods Chasing the light that we are

We don't stop, We don't stop for no one! We won't break, the world won't wait for you!

We don't stop, We don't stop for no one! We won't break, the world won't wait for you!
