

Kataklysm, Goliath

Let's go to war!

This time, I've had enough of tyranny
This time, I take my life into my own hands
The wall of giants can't stop me
My strength is immortal

All I see are parasites
All I see are traitors
Of a world you created
Cowards!

Scarred and broken, the sword of justice
My soul won't be in vain
As I walk through the valley of shadows and dust
Thy will be done
They told me that I would fail
They told me that the beast of fire's too strong
They never believed that this heart will set us free
It's too hard to miss

All I see are parasites
All I see are traitors
Of the world you created
Cowards!

No enemy is too big
David and Goliath
No enemy is too big
David and Goliath

You raged a war that you can't win
A tidal wave of heroes' blood
Underestimated, underrated
But I'll never be forgotten
For I am legend

No enemy is too big
David and Goliath
No enemy is too big
David and Goliath
