Katatonia, No Devotion

i've turned down all devotion i'm so far from being here can't bring forth more power than i have already done tonight i'm trying and i see all dread in me but then i lose again all hope of being someone this lack of devotion will put me to an end so if you want to save me and stop me when i run just tell me that i'll have now a day less to live when i'm done
