

Kate Alexa, Help Me Find My Way

I dont understand who I really am.

I cant keep going on round and round again.

I've travelled so far without looking back but somethings missing, somethings just not right.

Where do I go, where do I stand, I feel like a lost child with no hand.

I am so unsure, so far from secure, I need you to help me find, help me find my way.

Oooh haa.. Ohhh yeah.. Ohhhh

Your slow, things take time, thats what they always say.

Sometimes, it gets way to rough, you just wanna hide away.

For all the times I break time and cry, somethings missing, somethings just not right.

Where do I go, where do I stand, I feel like a lost child with no hand.

I am so unsure, I'm far from secure, I need you to help me find, help me find my way.

Help me find my way, oooh baby.

Gonna stay strong, yeah gonna move on, with my life, thats what I'm gonna do..

Where do I go, where do I stand, I feel like a lost child with no hand.

I am so unsure, so far from secure, I need you to help me find, help me find my waaay..

I feel like a lost child with no hand.

I am so unsure, so far from secure, I need you to help me find, help me find my waaay.

Where do I stand, I feel like a lost child with no hand.

I am so unsure, and far from secure, I need you to help me find, help me find my way..
