

Kate Alexa, Waiting Here

Sometimes things are tough and you dont know what to do.

You said it all but not enough, are we gonna make it through.

I dont wanna see the end of you and me.

So I wait by the phone, will I ever hear from you?

Is it all sadly mourned, is there nothing I can do?

I know what I want but it all depends on you. Yeah it all depends on you.

Everytime I see your face, everytime you walk away, I'll be waiting here for you.

And when my heart begins to race, everything falls into place, I'll be waiting here for you cause I know

As time moves on, theres noone else but you.

I cant deny the love I feel for you.

I hope you see just what you do to me. Just what you do to me.

Everytime I see your face, everytime you walk away, I'll be waiting here for you.

And when my heart begins to race, everything falls into place, I'll be waiting here for you cause I know

Even if it takes forever, I'll be waiting here for you.

Even if we're not together, I'll be waiting here for you.

I know it might only, only be a matter of time before I make you mine..

Everytime I see your face, everytime you walk away, I'll be waiting here for you. I'll be waiting baby

When my heart begins to race, everything falls into place, I'll be waiting here for you cause I know y

I'll be waiting here for you cause I know you want me to.

I'll be waiting here for you cause I know you want me to.

When my heart begins to race, everything falls into place, I'll be waiting here for you..
