

Kate Bush, You Were The Star

Were the star
When there was no one,
You were in the sky
And I was nowhere to be seen.

You have fallen, oh my star
And you have lost your faith,
And tomorrow means the same to me,
To all.

Nevermind
For tomorrow
Will be
Half a genius shining

You were the star
When there was no one,
You were in the sky
And I was nowhere to be seen.

Now you have fallen, oh my star
And you have lost your faith
And tomorrow means the same to me,
To you,
To all.

Nevermind
For tomorrow
Will be
Half a genius shining
Half a genius shining
