

Kate Ceberano, Love Is Alive

It feels so good when love is a conscious thing
Less pretentious and real baby, do you feel like I do ?
I know its vague by definition, but whether real or just imagined
Honey right now I dont care

So if I change Ill give you a warning
Until that time then just be adoring
Love is alive, and we look alike
Are we dressed alright, well go out tonight
Sleep all day and well eat in bed
Well make love until this mood is spent

So kick your boots off and leave them by the door
You wont be needing them anymore
I know you feel like I feel
Coz I can fake it or lose it completely
Whenever your lying beside me
The world outside can go to hell

So if I change Ill give you a warning
Until that time then just be adoring
Love is alive, and we look alike
Are we dressed alright, well go out tonight
Sleep all day and well eat in bed
Well make love until this mood is spent

And it gets so creepy trying to justify
One night stands are just too freaky, too bizarre
Scattered clothes and a telephone number tattooed to your palm
And in the morning you wake up too alone, feeling guilty

Love is alive, and we look alike
Dressed alright, well go out tonight
Sleep all day and well eat in bed
Well make love until this mood is spent

Love is alive
Dressed alright, well go out tonight
Sleep all day, and well eat in bed
Well make love until this mood is spent
