

Kate Ceberano, Vision

I only want to feel a part of something
I wanted to experience everything
I never dreamt it would take this far
But its too isolated, Im stuck in here right now
Yes, Ive been wrapt up in a vision
It feels so crowded in the sky
Ive never dreamt of any competition
So many beautiful women with high expectations its just like when we were at school but far too complicated and less sophisticated
Yes, Ive been wrapt up in a vision
It feels so crowded in the sky
Im like a deer caught in the headlights
Where, where can I get off
Ohh Ohhh Yes, Yes you know that this was the only game that I have ever invented Aahh and I wont give it in stop change just give it up
I wont give it in till I get all that I wanted ohh ohh
And now I feel so badly cast in this film thats playing way too fast
Playing way too fast, too fast, too fast for me
Ive been wrapt up in a vision
It feels so crowded in the sky
Im like a deer caught in the headlights
Where, where can I get off
Where can I get off
Where can I get off

Oh where, I wont give in, stop change give it up
