

Kate Havnevik, Someday

I know, you'd like to stay a while and watch her smile.

Through the night.

You are a lonely soul

You just wanted to be loved for a while.

Sometimes its just a tease so strange a fire, you will find someone you will find someone you will find

Out there, somewhere

Try to be brave!

I once when drowned in circles like you lost my way by the tide...

Sometimes its just a tease so strange a fire, you will find someone you will find someone you will find

Out there, Somewhere

Try to be brave!

Someway, someday!

one day, one day!

you'll find someone, you'll find someone out there!
