

Kate Miller-Heidke, Thanks For Today

Waving goodbye in the afternoon
Leaving a sigh cause we know that soon
All that we'll have is this photograph
Remember before we were even friends
Funny to think this is how it ends
No going back, back along this path
Thanks for today
Your smile goes along way
Now let's leave before the tide comes back in
No one's to blame
And there's nothing left to say
Concerning who we were and how we are
Some of the days used to seem so long
Having to face knowing they were wrong
And there were times, we didn't always get along
Then I think of you when its dark and late lieing beneath the stars in space
Thanks for today

Your smile goes along way
Now let's leave before the tide comes back in
No one's to blame
Concerning who we were and how we are
I wouldn't change a thing (I wouldn't change a thing)
I'd do it all again (I'd do it all again)
'Cept maybe then I'd understand
So, thanks for today
Your smile goes along way
Now let's leave before the tide comes back in
No one's to blame
Concerning who we were and how we are Learning every sunny day gets dark
Concerning who we were and how we are
