

Kate Ryan, Driving Away

I'm on the highway alone got my radio on
My mind is drifting to each song
I can't go back no no no
I'm moving on without you
I don't know where I'm going to
I'm driving far away from you
Doesn't matter where to
Until the morning comes in you
Until my tears are as cold as you

I'm driving away from you
I don't know where I'm driving to
I'm driving away from you
And I'm here thinking about you

I took my keys and locked my heart
I let the distance drive us apart
If I didn't leave I still be here
On a one way street going nowhere
Until the morning comes in you
Until my tears are as cold as you

A kind of dust is leaving
Until reaction I can't believe it
Too many exits of your lies
Too many secrets in your eyes

I'm driving away from you
I don't know where I'm driving to
I'm driving away from you
And I'm here thinking about you

When the tears can come to you
And the feels of love to you
Until the morning comes to you
When the tears can come to you
And the feels of love to you

I'm driving away from you
I don't know where I'm driving to
I'm driving away from you
And I'm here thinking about you
