

Kate Ryan, Je t'adore

uuuh yeahaha yeah the sum of all my fantasies that's everything you are to me you came around and make my senses fly shoot me up when you took me to the sky never thought that I could ever get this high refrain:

je tadore and I can't conceal it je tadore anyone can see it you give me just a little more everything I'm waiting for je tadore here's my heart so take it je tadore only you can break it you got me fallin' to the floor anywhere you wan' I'm yours uhuuhuh je tadore

bye bye to all the lies I've heard you made of different kind of girl you sent me out and make my sense fly shoot me up when you took me to the sky
never thought that I could ever get this high

you got me fallin' to the floor

I can't breath without you je tadore
I'm not me without you you're the rush damnless
made a wish that I feel a kiss just like this je tadore and you make me feel it je tadore and I really mean it you give me just a little more everything I'm waitin' for (waitin' for)

you got me fallin' to the floor anywhere you wan' I'm yours (anywhere you wan' I'm yours)

everything I'm waiting for (everything I have to waitin' for)

je tadore baby don't you break it you got me fallin' to the floor
uhuuhuh je tadore
