

Katerine, Now I Know You

Im stuck in a queue
What can I do
I shouldve left you hours ago
Why did I stay
And listen to you
Let me go
Now I know you, how can I love you
We do nothing but fight
Now I know you, theres nothing to love any more
Theres nothing to love its all a lie
Please let me go
Its strange how your heart can warm up
In a matter of seconds
When you find that person in mind
Is begging from time
Im just trying to get home
I really need to be alone
Now I know you, how can I love you
Its time to open my eyes
Now I know you, theres nothing to love any more
Theres nothing to love its all a lie
Please let me go
Now love turned to hate I can not wait to leave this place
How can I love you, theres nothing to love anymore
Now love turned to hate I walk away from the mess youve made
How can I love you, theres nothing to love anymore
Please let me go
