

Katie Melua, End of Summer (piosenka do filmu C

Katie Melua prezentuje piosenkę "End of Summer" - anglojęzyczną wersję do filmu "Chłopi".

Seasons turn and turn again
Bitter winds begin to blow
See me catching a drifting cloud
Fly away, let the rumble go

Running fast, rage of wolves
Caring hearts, a blessing or a curse
Gliding high above the clouds
The spinning rage, no longer hurts

Flying up above the fields
Above the woods and stars far from here
Red horizons, folding sky
Take me, as you've taken away my fear

Say what you like, [?]
Those wicked tongues, they're not getting through
Echoes of their distant rage fade
And vanish into blue

Summer winds will soon return
Here to carry me away
I'll hang upon these sun-white clouds
I'm soaring I'll be unafraid
I embrace open wounds
My scars to heal my spirit beings
I'm flying out to the hills
Overseas, to meet my dreams

Summer winds will soon return
Here to carry me away
I'll hang upon these sun-white clouds
I'm soaring I'll be unafraid
I embrace open wounds
My scars to heal my spirit beings
I'm flying out to the hills
Overseas, to meet my dreams

Looking down I see the view
Hostiles of the great wide world
I dream it now my life anew
A fresh canvas, to be unfurled

Foreign lines, friendly towns
Is there a place to make me home
Healing rains, hope of spring
Faith, returning to my soul

Summer winds will soon return
Here to carry me away
I'll hang upon these sun-white clouds
I'm soaring I'll be unafraid
I embrace open wounds
My scars to heal my spirit beings
I'm flying out to the hills
Overseas, to meet my dreams

Ooh
Ooh
Ooh
Ooh
