

Katja Werker, Step By Step

yes I'm scared but life is beautiful yes I'm tired but I go on yes I'm afraid but I'll follow my dream as far as far as I can yes I'm slow but I hurry up yes I run fast but I breathe yes I am sad but I'll follow my past till we're walking on thicker ice

step by step
and day by day
night after night after night after night after night we're clearing the road for music yes I am locked but I gonna come out yes I feel blind but I work yes I'm confused but I'll follow my heart till I see what your meaning to me

we're clearing the road for music
