

Katy Gunn, Inside Me

Sometimes I get lonely
I dont even know myself
Sometimes you wont find me
I turn into someone else
The atmospheres blurry
Things they seem a bit unclear
But when you come near me
Suddenly bad thoughts disappear
I see you
Inside me
Yeah I see you
Inside me
Sometimes I get lonely
And I dont quite understand
Why people look ugly
But then I remind myself
I can be a bitch sometimes
If you push me
The monster that I have inside is always with me
And when I look into your eyes it just reminds me
The ugly that I see outside
Is also inside me
I see you
Inside me
Yeah I see you
Inside me
I see you
Inside me
Yeah I see you
Inside me
