

Katy Gunn, Life Song

Words

Absurd

Names only disturbed

Laugh and live and love and give

Now darling dont you fear

Yeah

The world and I dont seem to understand each other

Bind them break

Now build with strength

And always things must change

This is the life song

Yeah, yeah

Nothing is supposed to be easy while the world is constantly changing

Darling when are you ever going to learn

Regardless of what I lose

No Im not givin' away my joy

Laugh and love and give too much

You know always you must fight

Oh, life is painful

But so beautiful

I cant contain

Yeah, yeah

This is the life song

Sing along
