

Katy Rose, Rosemary

It's in the way she talks
And how she stares
At someone when nothing is there
The way she sits
The way she stares
And never really seems to care
That nobody is ever there
Nobody is ever there
Rosemary (everybody says she's insane)
Everyone says she's insane (rosemary's my middle name)
Rosemary (that's my middle name)
That is my middle name
She's in the ground so deep
But doesn't mind
At least she has a place to sleep
I'm six feet under
And oh
Never really been this cheap
Hopefully she never weeps
Rosemary (everybody says she's insane)
Everyone says she's insane (rosemary's my middle name)
Rosemary (that's my middle name)
That is my middle name
Rosemary (she lives in the garden alone)
Lives in a garden alone
And wherever she is
That is her home
I wanna go home
