

Kazuyuki Matsumoto, I Don't Care

I hate to evaluate you because you want me to
I hate to invite you in here because you feel your special
If you just continue playing the innocent and prude
I'll thank you for all the effort but I prefer a bitch
I don't care
I won't share
I don't mind if you pay me out
"I believe in you"
"Believe in love"
That's all you would say
All I saw was people abusing trust and faith
Now don't believe in me believe in evil
That's all I say Sorry, girl
If you think your dream can save the day
I am gonna show you more
Leave me now, I need my time to reset my fucking mind
When you are around me I feel the rage inside me grow
I don't care
I won't share
I won't change even if you cry
"I believe in God"
"Believe in peace"
That's all you would say
All I saw was people appealing for the gold
Sorry girl, if you think hope can save the world
No no no
Now don't believe in me believe in evil
That's all I say Sorry, girl
If you think that you can save the day
I am gonna show you more
