

Kazuyuki Matsumoto, The Shadow

I live in a place for people who hate the sun
I'm giving my love for people who hate society
You're slowly dissolving into You're slowly decaying into
You're slowly degrading into dirty mud
I need to inhale your smell and
I need to caress your skin and
I need to disgrace your blood to live my life
I'm a beast
A dreamer
That's what I am
I'm a freak
A killer
That's what I am
I'm a shame
Inhuman
That's what I am
Call my name
The Shadow
The Shadow
The Shadow
I live in a place for people who hate the sun
I'm giving my love for people who hate society
You're slowly escaping into You're slowly collapsing into
You're slowly dissolving into your own blood
I need to enchain your arms and
I need to observe your acts and
I need to be sure you're buried underneath
I'm possessed
I'm falling
That's what I am
