It's The Same Old Song

The Supremes

(Brian Holland/Lamont Dozier/Edward Holland, Jr.)

You're sweet as a honey bee

But like a honey bee stings

You've gone and left my heart in pain

All you left is our favorite song

The one we danced to all night long

It used to bring sweet memories

Of a tender love that used to be

Now it's the same old song

But with a different meaning

Since you been gone

It's the same old song

But with a different meaning

Since you been gone

A sentimental fool am I

to hear a old love song

And wanna cry

But the melody keeps haunting me

Reminding me how in love we used to be

Keep hearing the part that used to touch my heart

Saying together forever

Breaking up never

It's the same old song

But with a different meaning

Since you been gone

It's the same old song

But with a different meaning

Since you been gone

Precious memories keep a lingering on

Everytime I hear our favorite song

Now you're gone

Left this emptiness

I only reminisce

The happiness we spent

We used to dance on the music

Make romance through the music

It's the same old song

But with a different meaning

Since you been gone

It's the same old song

But with a different meaning

Since you been gone

It's the same old song

But with a different meaning

Since you been gone

It's the same old song

But with a different meaning

Since you been gone
