

Keane, Maybe I Can Change

Now
Will it ever be the same...
Again?
And will it ever feel right?
A false start,
Then I try to twist your heart...
But I suppose,
It always knows...
I know how I let you down,
But maybe I can change this time around,
This heart in these hands of mine,
Maybe I can change this time...
Soon,
I'm gonna be an older man,
And I,
Will struggle to remember,
A blank space
When I tried to see your face,
But Blinded,
I can't replace
I know how I let you down,
But maybe I can change this time around.
This heart in these hands of mine,
Maybe I can change this time...
Oh why can't we go back again?
Oh...
Rain, rain will you ever go away?
Come back again some other day...
I know how I let you down,
But maybe I can change this time around.
This heart in these hands of mine,
Maybe I can change this time...
But I tired you out
With the things I do
But i can change
And change you, too
And still so blind
I have to say
That I'm on my way...
gone..G
