

Keaton Henson, You Don't Know How Lucky You

Does he know who you are?
Does he laugh, just to know what he has?

Does he know not to talk about your dad?
Does he know when you're sad?

You don't like to be touched,
Let alone kissed
Does he know where your lips begin?

Do you know who you are?
Do you laugh, just to think what I lack?

Do you know your lip shakes when you're mad?
And do you notice when you're sad?

You don't like to be touched,
Let alone kissed
Does his love make your head spin?
