

Keepsake, Final Moments

I see nothing
As darkness envelops me

[Chorus]
Light can not penetrate
My reality is laid to rest
Our eyes never meet [x2]

But I feel it's presence
A piercing stare burns though me
How long do I have to wait
Before they're taken from me
How long do I have to wait
Before they're used to destroy me

[Chorus]
Can this fatal bond
Be dissolved
Before I'm left in ruins
It seems so hopeless
But now at last

The final cut has been made
My blood has been devoured
I'm reduced to nothing
Satisfied it moves on [x2]
