

Keith Moon, Crazy Like A Fox

"Hello everybody, and welcome"
"Hello!"

Stand back, you got to give the girl room to move
Stand back, you got to let her find her own groove
I know you think she's acting a baby
And she's playing crazy games with you
But she's crazy like a fox
And that fox got her eyes on you

Stand back, you got to give the girl room to dance
Stand back, she's gonna love you if you let her have a chance
I know you think she's acting a sly one
And she's playing crazy games with you
But she's crazy like a fox
And that fox got her eyes on you

Stand back, you got to give the little lady room to breathe
Stand back, I can see you're trembling at your knees
I know you think she's acting a baby
And she's playing crazy games with you
But she's crazy like a fox
And that fox got her eyes on you
But she's crazy like a fox
And that fox got her eyes on you
I said she's crazy like a fox
And that fox got her eyes on you
