

Keith Urban, What Love Is That Way

(G Burr/Keith Urban)

You come here lookin' for sympathy
Cause it's not everything you thought it would be
Don't waste your time
You can't understand why it comes and goes
The sudden storms, the highs and lows
So you stand here cryin'
Girl get in line

CHORUS:

What love is that way
You're waitin' time pretending
What love is that way
When you walk through life expecting
So much, so soon
Love can only hurt you
What love is that way
What love is ever that way
The more you wish and the more you dream
The more the reality never seems
What it ought to be
It's never perfect as when it begins
Time always seems to put an end
To the fantasy, It seems to me

REPEAT CHORUS

So much, so soon, Love can only hurt you
What love is that way
What love is ever that way, What love is that way
REPEAT TO FADE
