

Kelis, In The Morning

Hey baby what you doing?
Your flight left yet?
Pshh, I'm half way there
I can't wait to see you
So tell me have you left yet, damn

I'm running late to the airport
Every time we do this
In my mind saying should I go through with this?
All I see is you kissing me
Last time shut my eyes
Plane goes higher, higher

Hotel's booked all I have to do is get my key
I can't wait to have you walk up and hold on me, yeah
I've never felt this way before

[1] - But in the morning
When you're gone
I must wait and be strong
And have faith
You'll return
In my arms
Hope you miss your flight
Hope you miss your flight

Casablanca has always been my dream
I heard that it's absolutely radiant in spring
In the garden drinking shots of Hennessy
Calm my nerves, it's been way too long for me

Finally we're driving in a far out dream
Nothing seems even real or close for me
Afternoon sun showers change the way I see
I've never felt this way before

[Repeat 1]

[Repeat 1]

It's okay, it's okay
(It's okay)
It's okay, it's okay

[Repeat 1 till end]
