

Kelis, Intro

What is this?

I have no idea

Okay welcome, follow come in okay single file, watch your step,

Welcome to Kelis's world

You've entered?

Don't touch that!...

Yesterday, we were born

We took your stereos by storm

In just one day,

Through all the scorn and the hate we'll penetrate your homes and domes

With just one take

And now we're here let the games begin

Get ready, start, let's play

We'll win this race

This is the new beginning

The empire strikes back

Learn from losing

Cherish winning

Forever
