

Kelly, Changes

I look in the mirror
And see this ugly face
My hairs a scruff
My make-ups all wrong
And my clothes
Are so old fashioned (old fashioned, old fashioned)

When people see me
They just don't believe that
Anyone could be so ugly

Chorus:
I need a change, seriously
No one likes me, I hang on my own
But that will change now
Cos im gonna be different (be different, yeah)

No one likes me
Cos of my ugly face
They don't see the soul inside
But no wonder
No one gets to know me
They see my face and flee away

When people see me
They just don't believe that
Anyone could be so ugly

Chorus:
I need a change, seriously
No one likes me, I hang on my own
But that will change now
Cos im gonna be different (be different, yeah)

They'll see
The lot of em
When im a superstar
I'll be a woman
Very different
From the stupid girls they are

Then when people see me
They just wont believe that
Anyone so ugly
Could be so beautiful
So quickly

Chorus:
I had a change, seriously
No one liked me, I hung on my own
But that has changed now
Cos I have become different (come different)

I had a change, seriously
No one liked me, I hung on my own
But that has changed now
Cos I have become different
(come different, come different, yeah!)
