

Kelly Clarkson, All I Know

For all I know, you could be near and every breath I take, you could feel
For all I know, you're just a thought that crossed my mind
What I wouldn't give to live that thought of mine.

For all I know is nothing's changed
Nothing ever will if I don't leave this place
For all I know, you're waiting for me to whisper your name
What I wouldn't give to kiss your sweet face

Cause all I know is I need you here
And all I have, I would give away so I could say this dear
All I feel, oh I tried so hard to not feel
It's killing me

For all I know, you forgot me
For all I know, you're different, completely
And everything we had was never what I thought it was
But for all I know, oh it was love.

Cuz all I know is I need you here
All I have, I would give away to so I could say this dear
All I feel, oh I tried so hard to not feel
It's killing me

Now everyone has a name
And every face always somehow looks the same
I always feel so alone, especially when it rains
For all I know, boy, you do the same, yeah

Yeah I didn't know that I need you here
All I had, I gave away cause I was still afraid to feel
All I feel, oh I tried so hard to not feel
It's killing me, it's killing me

All I know
All I know
For all I know
