

Kelly Clarkson, mine

you know i question every motive, every thing you say thought with you maybe my heart wasn't meant to break can't believe i let you in, i can't believe i stayed as long as i stayed, yeah

i hope one day someone will take your heart and hold it tight make you feel like you're invincible deep inside and right when you think that it's perfect they cross a line and steal your shine
like you did mine

go ahead and break my heart that's fine
so unkind
eternal sunshine of the spotless mind oh love is blind
why am i missin' you tonight
was it all a lie
someone's gonna show you how a heart can be used

and now i second guess my thoughts, every step i take i'm losin' hope in love and i've lost all in faith yeah for a dreamer i just close my eyes and it's all blank i have you to thank, yeah

and right when you think that you'll try again they cross a line

so unkind
oh love is blind

and you keep talking it'll come back karma is the truth
i don't make you look bad, you do darlin' sabotage
your choice of art who the hell do you think you are
