

Kelly Clarkson, Move You

like a montage in the movie like before the hero died like a first time that you listen to your favorite singer live like a echo in the canyon like tears but you not sad like a sunrise in the mountain I wanna move you like that

uhu oh, I wanna move you like that

like a symphony of sound in the middle of July when we...
and it breaks you down inside like a home when you arise by faded photograph like a thrill of Christmas morning
