

Kelly Groucutt, Sea Of Dreams

I close my eyes and suddenly I can see you
The magical waves that call to me
The magical sea of mystery
I'm coming back home
Coming back to the sea of dreams

Back to where I belong
I don't know where I was going to
I don't know where I have been
But I'm coming to stay
Coming back to the sea of dreams

You've seen the hopes of a thousand years
Must be the reason I come back to you
Sea of dreams
You can wash away all my fears
I'm coming home to you
Before my life is through
I'm coming home to you

"[Vocoded]
In my mind I see you now
I'll get back to you
I will stay forever, by the sea of dreams
Sea of dreams," I'm coming home
I'm coming home
I'm coming home
I'm coming home (coming home, coming home, coming home)
I'm coming home (home, home, home)
I'm coming home
