

Kelly Jones, Misty

Hey Misty, what's on your mind?
You look miles away
You can't find your smile?

Hey Misty, you getting jealous again?
Your man's going out
Yet you're still stuck in

Hey Misty, your mind's racing round
You're thinking the worst
What could be going down

Hey Misty, gotta let it all go
Or it will drag you down
And bury you in a hole
