

Kelly Osbourne, Everything's Alright

10,000 hours to go before we're kicking it all night
feels like my mind will explode if we don't bust it out tonight

F*@k that bullsh*t
Need to relax
Get my head straight Put my face on Shove my hair up
Get my ass in gear and now
Everything's alright

grab all my sh*t and just go got no worries feeling fine pull up to this spot that I know and now I finally feel alive Well the daytime's gone now
Well the room's all full now
People crushing
Noise is hurting
My back's sweating
I'm losing my mind
I'm losing my mind hard
Everything's alright

Now lights are swimming
Stomach;s heaving
Bed is spinning
Crotch is itching
Hands are feeling
Legs are kicking
And now, now, now
Everything's alright
