

Kelly Osbourne, Redlight

im falling, dont bother, i rather end up where i dropped off no making excuses, i guess i feel like i dont fit your speaking but i just dont hear you, who do you think is listening?, you noticed i didnt,

go figured if you got a minute,
your reaching, im leaving dont say i havent gave you nothing.
it's getting just a little creepy, the thoughts of never nothing sleeping it's hard to say whats on my mind, words always are one step behind.

Chorus:

im waiting on a red light (waiting on a red light)
sitting on a time bomb (sitting on a time bomb)
nothing seems to go right (nothing seems to go right)
im still remaining calm (im still remaining clam)
walking on a tight-rope emotionally amazed, acareful execution that slaps me in the face
im waiting on a red light but still remaing calm.

im fed up, so boring, swimming in a pool of quick sand not making a scene, please insert a nervous breakdown take a needle stitch my mouth up then apply alittle make up, all the stupid things i said.

prssure keeps building everyday.

Chorus:

im waiting on a red light (waiting on a red light)
sitting on a time bomb (sitting on a time bomb)
im still remaining calm (im still remaining clam)
walking on a tight-rope emotionally amazed,
acareful execution that slaps me in the face
im waiting on a red light but still remaing calm.

(instrumental break)

Chorus:

im waiting on a red
sitting on a time bomb
nothing seems to go right im still remaining calm
walking on a tight-rope emotionally amazed,
acareful execution that slaps me in the face
im waiting on a red light but still remaing calm.

Chorus:

sitting on a time bomb (waiting on a red light) nothing seems to go right (waiting on a red light) im still remaining calm (waiting on a red light) catch me im falling, i dont wanna land where i fell from.
