

Kelly Rowland, Dream

I dream one day that you and me were meant to be,
I should have talked to him,
you should have given me a chance.
But now we'll never know.

chorus

And now i'm sittin here,
can't get get you out my head,
I dreamt this day would come true.
I drove myself insain wishing it would come true.
But the truth remains your gone. Boy i'm wrong

I never knew it would be like this.
One day i'll show you that I can be whatever you want me to be. (yea yea yea)

chorus again

now i can say i dont love you no more, but idont to hurt your fellings when you walk through that door, but your still on my brain
