

Kelly Rowland feat. David Guetta, Commander

I feel like the DJ is my bodyguard
You see the way he keeps me safe
With the treble and that bass
I feel free enough to party hard
This dress won't go to waste
Feel like I own the place
V.I.P to to be the boss
You see the way these people stare
Watching how I fling my hair
I'm a dancefloor lover
Baby there's no other
Who do it like I do it yeah

It's jam packed
So DJ where you at?
I know you got my back
So make that bass attack
Let's make these people move
You know i need some room, to
Do what i do, I'm bout to act a fool
Turn the lights on

I'll be your commander
I'll provide the answer
From here on out
I'll be your commander
Right now i command you to...
I'll be your commander
I'll provide the answer

Ain't no reason to celebrate
But you know we gon' hav a ball
Champagne spillin' from the wall
And I'll be partying til hella late
But I ain't worried not at all
I just give my driver a call (yeah)
Tell him pick me up at 8am
No we ain't stopping right here
We'll take the party to the crib
Let's go all night baby
You won't find no lady
Who does it like I does it yeah

It's jam packed
So DJ where you at?
I know you got my back
So make that bass attack
Let's make these people move
You know i need some room, to
Do what i do, I'm bout to act a fool
Turn the lights on

I'll be your commander
I'll provide the answer
