

Kelly Sweet, Ready For Love

When love calls your name
And whispers you're the one
When all you've ever dreamed
Dances like stars around your heart
And finally I hold the chance
To give you all my love
So what's keeping me
Away from holding you
I'm ready to believe
Be strong enough
Give everything I am
And trust in love
My arms long to reach for you
The way I feel I wish you knew
I'm ready now, I'm ready to believe
Ooh, I'm ready for love
Only once, you will find
A love that is so true
And the way I think of you
You can't imagine how beautiful it feels
I must find a way to speak
This secret I hold near
It's these words
You need to hear
I'm ready to believe
Be strong enough
Give everything I am
And trust in love
My arms long to reach for you
The way I feel I wish you knew
I'm ready now, I'm ready to believe
Ooh
I know with you I could stay forever
Sailing into grace
Here all things are possible
There's no time or space
When I feel you near
I'm ready to believe
Be strong enough
Give everything I am
And trust in love
My arms long to reach for you
The way I feel I wish you knew
I'm ready now, I'm ready to believe
Ooh, ooh
