

Kelly Willis, Heaven's Just A Sin Away

Heaven's just a sin away oh oh just a sin away
I can't wait another day I think I'm giving in How I long to hold you tight oh oh be with you tonight
That still don't make it right cause I belong to him

Oh way down deep inside I know that it's all wrong
Your eyes keep tempting but I never was that strong
Devil's got me now oh oh gone and got me now
I can't find him anyhow I'm think he's gonna win
Heaven's just a sin away oh oh just a sin away
Heaven help me when I say I think I'm giving in [fiddle]
Oh way down deep inside...
Think I'm giving in think I'm giving in
