

Kelly Willis, Not What I Had In Mind

(Kelly Willis)

Chorus

It's not what I had in mind
Loving you now that you're no longer mine
It's not what I had in mind
Letting you go and then crossing that line

I've fallen under some spell and I wonder
What is the right thing to do
I've been here before and I've never been sure
I'm still in love with you

Chorus

Time has weakened my will
And changed how I feel
I want you still

I'm falling over myself to get closer
To you and I shouldn't want to
I can't deny how
You make me feel right now
I'm still in love with you

Chorus

It's not, in mind
Loving you now
But it's not, in mind
Letting you go
