

Ken Laszlo, Don't Cry

Open your eyes, that's all he's ever wanted
Maybe it's just your love that's gone
I can be right when you get the feelings through your heart
(into your heart) x 3
What do you think about it?
Do you think that is to hide your pride?
What do you dream about yourself?
Now baby you can tell me, don't be so afraid
And

Chorus

Don't cry, don't cry this is my life
Don't cry, you've not better never lose your mind
Now maybe you can feel me, maybe you can see me
Don't cry, it's me forever don't forget my eyes
Don't cry you have not better never lose your time
Now maybe you can feel me maybe you can see me
Don't cry

Now in your eyes, to the world you've been a strong girl
maybe you'll reach for your goal
I must believe that you kind of saw to get this far

What do you think about it?
Do you think that is to hide your pride
What do you dream about yourself?
Now baby you can tell me, don't be so afraid
And
Chorus
