

Kendall Payne, Honest

Boy know your place.
Lies do not become us.
Real is more attractive than a slick and polished mask.
Girl dig down deep,
I know there's more between us.
There's bound to be a question
You're just dying for me to ask.

If you can be honest
I can be too.
If you'll take the first step
I'll follow you through.
But no one wants to bleed.
No one wants to hide.
No one wants to hurt alone inside.

Child don't close your eyes
The truth contains much beauty
And though it scars your soul
It can heal the wounds it makes
You've been deceived to think
That pain is to be dreaded,
And you've got nothing left.
It'll give more than it takes.

Chorus

If you can't find a peace
I'll help find it for you
I don't know how,
But one thing that's sure
Is I won't leave you now.

If you can be honest
I can be too
If you take the first step
I'll follow you through
No one wants to bleed
No one wants to hide
No one wants to hurt alone inside.
