

Kenny Lattimore, Who

who.....yah yah yah uh huh who saw you stumble baby, who let you fall,
who gave you something out of nothin' at all?
who's the one for you to turn to,
when you're feeling low?
who's always been there for you, darlin' you know who's gonna turn your back on, all that we had had?

who had the good times, should out-weigh the bad who took the vow that they'll be there til death do us part?
who's is slowly diein' cause' your breakin' my heart you know

Chorus
I gave my love and it was from my heart I can't figure out just why you tore it apart why does it have to be this way?
I can't figure it out babe I wanna know whos gonna love you like I do and who's gonna be there holding you now...

whos can I turn to when I feel so blue who can I run to, theres no me without you whos gonna be by your side, since you walked right out my life can't sleep at night, keep toss and turnin'
and one, one can you tell me who

I guess I knew that you were satisfied
I tried to push those thoughts right out of my mind I guess this happens, when you don't deal with the pain but if you come on back, this way I'll give ya my everything again

Chorus[repeat 3x]
