

Kenny Rogers, Good Life

Baby, I've made up my mind
And take all the good life that I've found
I promise myself, if I was to make it
I had to do the best that I can
Oh, 'cause the good life is all that I am.

I know problems will come
But I know I can make it with you by my side
And every day I was a little harder
To be a good stronger feeling man
Oh, 'cause the good life is all that I am.

I tried chasing rainbow
But all I got was rainy day
And I tried to find a true love
Some harder love will sweep away
Now that I found you. Baby
I feel like a brand new man
Oh, 'cause the good life is all that I am,
Is all that I am, is all that I am...
