

Kenny Rogers, If You Can Lie a Little Bit

If you can lie a little bit.

If you can lie a little bit
You can lie a little bit more
Once you get away with it
It comes a little easier than it did before.

No hard feelings, no harm done
It's just time that I move on
Though we've only just begun
To see the signs of things to come
It's just a little lie to get in your way.

If you can lie

Wish you didn't look so good
Guess you never understood
Love is built on faith and trust
There's no future here for us
I have made a few mistakes in my time.
If you can lie

I wanna believe you
When you say you'll change for me
Shame on me!
Ooh, if you can lie
