

Kent, Generation Ex

St vid min olsta drr
i rakblad av billjus frn gatan ditt ansikte blekt nstan grymt det ekar i trapphuset droppar frn fingrarna

Allting gr igen kommer tillbaks
En dag ska alla skulderna betalas

och du vet jag har rtt
jag har rtt du har fel...
Har inte tid med all din skit Ja ja jag vet vad vi frlorat och jag vet att du vet jag har rtt
jag har rtt du har fel...
Hur kan det spela ngon roll Framtiden r nd utom rckhll fr oss

Sg nnting sg nnting nu du vet att jag fr panik
av dina trar
Gr nnting gr nnting nu frstr nnting,
sl mig, frstr nt jag verlever

Jag skulle alltid vara den som stod bakom dig Jag skulle alltid svara nr du kalla' p mig Jag skulle alltid vara den som vakta' din rygg Du skulle alltid alltid alltid vara

Den som gr igen, kommer tillbaks

jag har rtt du har fel...
Javisst s lngtar vi tillbaks till allt vi ljg om att vi gjorde och jag vet att du vet jag har rtt
jag har rtt du har fel...
framtiden r nd utom rckhll fr oss

</lyrics>
Stand by my unlocked door
In razor blades of car lights from the street
Your face pale almost cruel It's echoing from the stairwell dripping from your fingers

Everything goes around, comes back
One day all the debts must be repaid

And you know I'm right

I don't have time with all your crap
Yes, yes, I know what we've lost
And I know that you know I'm right
What difference can it make
The future is still beyond
Our grasp

Say something say something now
You know your tears
Make me panic
Do something do something now Destroy something
Hit me, destroy something, I'll survive

I would always be
The one who stood behind you
I would always answer
When you called on me
I would always be the one Who watched your back You would always always always be

The one who goes around, comes back

And you know I'm right
Of course we long back to all we lied about doing
And I know that you know I'm right
Our grasp
